Report on Career Guidance Program

A special session on Career guidance and scholarship awareness program was organized jointly by Student Welfare Wing of Anjuman Arts, Science, Commerce College, and PG Centre and Namma Nada Okkuta for PUC passed students in Bhatkal on 4th May 2023.

The session was led by Mr. Ameen E Mudassar, a Governing Council Member of Karnataka State Higher Education Council and the Founder & CEO of CIGMA, India's leading career guide, counselor, mentor, and coach. Mr. Mudassar's expertise and knowledge were shared with the students to help them understand themselves better in terms of their interests, abilities, and expectations from their education and career. He advised the students to be organized and make appropriate decisions while choosing their career path.

During the session, the speaker also talked about various career options available in today's modern and advanced generation. Additionally, he highlighted various scholarships available to students, which may help them receive benefits for their education. At the end of the session, Mr. Mudassar answered all the questions of students on career and educational options.

The session started at 10:00 AM and was hosted over jointly by Mr. Ganim Mohtesham, The Student Welfare Officer and Mr Nihal from the Bcom final year. The function started with the recitation of Quranic verses by Syed Abdul Mannan from UG. The welcome was made by Mohammed Nafaf Manegar. A brief presentation was given by Mr. Mohiddin Asbah on the infrastructure, features, and facilities of the college.

Prof. Mushtaque Sheikh, the Principal of Anjuman Degree College, Vice President of Anjuman Hami E Muslimeen's Janab Sadique Pilloor, Hussain Haikada from Namma Nada Okkuta and others graced this occasion with their presence. Approximately 200 students were present in the session.

The main intention of this session was to educate the students about the various career options available to them. The program concluded in the afternoon on a positive note with Vote of thanks by Ismail Ekkeri from the UG section.

In summary, the session was a valuable opportunity for PUC passed students to gain guidance and scholarship awareness for their future educational and career pursuits.
