Report on Personality Development Program for Final Year B.A and B.Sc Students

Date: 23rd Oct 2022

Venue: Anjuman Degree College

Organized by: Students Welfare Wing

The Personality Development Program for final year B.A and B.Sc students was conducted at Anjuman Degree College. The event saw full attendance from students, indicating their strong interest in personal and professional growth. The program began with Mr. Damodar, a lecturer at the college, providing an engaging introduction. Mr. RS Nayak, another faculty member, welcomed the guests and delivered an insightful opening speech.

Following the introductions, guests were greeted with roses by B.A final year students. Professor Ganim, the event organizer and Student Welfare Officer, shared the program's significance before handing it over to the resource person.

Prof. Arogyaswami Karadi, the resource person, shared practical insights from his life experiences, focusing on handling depression and stress. Utilizing a slideshow, he effectively communicates complex ideas. Students and staff actively participated throughout the session. A short break allowed attendees to refresh themselves.

Professor M.K. Shaikh, the college Principal, honored Prof. Karadi with a memento as a token of appreciation. Professor Shaikh concluded the program with words of wisdom. Overall, the Personality Development Program was a success, fostering a conducive learning environment within the college community.
