REPORT ON FRUITS DISTRIBUTION ACTIVITY AT TALUKA HOSPITAL, BHATKAL

Date: October 2, 2019

Location: Taluka Hospital, Bhatkal

Overview

The joint initiative by the NCC (National Cadet Corps) and NSS (National Service Scheme) units of our college aimed to spread goodwill and provide nourishment to patients at the Taluka Hospital in Bhatkal. The distribution of fresh fruits not only fulfilled a basic need but also conveyed our commitment to community service.

Event Details

Collaborative Effort

The NCC and NSS units worked hand in hand to organize this meaningful activity. Their joint efforts exemplified the spirit of unity and service.

Fruit Distribution

Volunteers gathered early in the morning at the Taluka Hospital. Baskets filled with an assortment of fruits—apples, bananas, oranges, and grapes—were prepared. These nutritious offerings were intended to boost the patients' health and lift their spirits during their recovery.

Interaction with Patients

As we distributed the fruits, we engaged in conversations with the patients. Their smiles and expressions of gratitude warmed our hearts. Many shared stories of their ailments and expressed how small gestures like this made a significant difference in their hospital experience.

Impact
