Introduction:

The NSS Unit organized a thought-provoking lecture on "Vachana Sahitya and Kayaka Philosophy" on 10-03-2020, at the Govt. Higher Primary School, Kotakhanda, Marukeri, Bhatkal. The event aimed to delve into the rich literary heritage of Vachana literature and its profound philosophical underpinnings, fostering cultural appreciation and intellectual discourse. The lecture was delivered by Dr. Narayan Madyastha, a distinguished lecturer in Kannada from RNS College, Murudeshwar, whose expertise in the field added depth and insight to the discussion.

Key Highlights:

Dr. Narayan Madyastha commenced the lecture by providing a comprehensive overview of Vachana Sahitya, a form of Kannada literature that originated in the 12th century and is characterised by its devotional and philosophical themes. He delved into the essence of Kayaka Philosophy, which espouses the ideals of selfless service, social equality, and spiritual liberation through meaningful labour. His erudite exposition and scholarly analysis captivated the audience's attention and sparked intellectual curiosity.

Exploration of Literary and Philosophical Themes:

The lecture explored various literary and philosophical themes embedded within Vachana literature, ranging from devotion to the divine to reflections on the human condition and the pursuit of self-realization. Dr. Madyastha elucidated the significance of Kayaka Philosophy in promoting social justice, environmental stewardship, and ethical governance, resonating with contemporary concerns and aspirations.

Interactive Exchange:

The session facilitated active participation from the audience, comprising NSS volunteers, staff members, and residents of Marukeri village. Engaging discussions ensued, with participants sharing their reflections, interpretations, and personal anecdotes related to Vachana literature and Kayaka Philosophy. The interactive exchange fostered a sense of collective learning and cultural enrichment among attendees.

Acknowledgment and Gratitude:

The NSS Unit extends its sincere gratitude to Dr. Narayan Madyastha for his enlightening lecture on "Vachana Sahitya and Kayaka Philosophy." Special thanks to Prof. R. S. Nayak for his guidance and support in organizing the event. The presence of Prof. Manjunath Prabhu, Lecturer in Commerce, as the Guest of Honour, added prestige to the occasion, and his participation is deeply appreciated.

Conclusion:

The lecture by Dr. Narayan Madyastha served as a testament to the enduring relevance of Vachana literature and Kayaka Philosophy in fostering spiritual awakening and societal transformation. It underscored the importance of preserving and propagating our cultural heritage as a source of inspiration and moral guidance. The NSS Unit remains committed to promoting intellectual discourse and cultural appreciation through such enlightening initiatives.
