Report on Cleaning Activity Organized by College NSS Unit

Under the Guidance of: NSS Officer Prof. Manjunath Prabhu

Date: 02-03-2019 to 08-03-2019

Venue: Govt. Higher Primary School, Gandhi Nagar, Heble, Bhatkal

Time: 10:00 AM

Number of NSS Volunteers: 54

Number of Staff Members: 04

Introduction: The NSS Unit of our college, under the guidance of NSS Officer Prof. Manjunath Prabhu, organized a week-long cleaning activity from 02-03-2019 to 08-03-2019 at the Govt. Higher Primary School in Gandhi Nagar, Heble, Bhatkal. The primary objective of this initiative was to promote cleanliness and hygiene while instilling a sense of civic responsibility among the volunteers and the community.

Activities Undertaken: The cleaning activity involved a series of tasks aimed at maintaining cleanliness and tidiness within the school premises. NSS volunteers actively participated in sweeping classrooms, corridors, and playgrounds, removing litter and debris, and cleaning washroom facilities. Additionally, they engaged in beautification efforts such as painting walls and refurbishing school furniture to enhance the overall aesthetics of the environment.

Community Participation: The cleaning activity garnered significant participation from the residents of Heble village, who joined hands with NSS volunteers in their endeavor. This collaborative effort fostered a sense of community ownership and solidarity towards the upkeep of public spaces, reinforcing the importance of collective action in promoting cleanliness and hygiene. The active involvement of the local populace underscored the shared commitment towards maintaining a clean and healthy environment.

Impact and Outcome: The week-long cleaning activity yielded tangible results, with a noticeable improvement in the overall cleanliness and hygiene of the school premises. The concerted efforts of NSS volunteers and community members not only transformed the physical environment but also instilled a sense of pride and ownership among stakeholders. Furthermore, the activity served as a platform for fostering camaraderie and social cohesion among participants.

Acknowledgment and Gratitude: The NSS Unit extends its heartfelt gratitude to all the volunteers, staff members, and residents of Heble village who actively participated in the cleaning activity. Special thanks to NSS Officer Prof. Manjunath Prabhu for his leadership and guidance throughout the initiative. The collective effort and commitment demonstrated by everyone involved exemplify the spirit of service and community engagement promoted by the NSS.

Conclusion: The cleaning activity organized by the college NSS unit exemplifies the spirit of volunteerism and community service upheld by the organization. Through collaborative efforts and collective action, the initiative not only contributed to the cleanliness and hygiene of the school premises but also fostered a sense of civic responsibility and social cohesion among participants. The NSS Unit remains committed to organizing such initiatives that make a positive impact on the community and instil values of service and leadership among volunteers.
