Report on Lecture on "Personality Development"

Date: 07-03-2019, Thursday

Venue: Govt. Higher Primary School, Gandhi Nagar, Heble, Bhatkal

Time: 4:30 pm

A motivating lecture on "Personality Development" was organized by the NSS unit of our college, under the guidance of NSS Officer Prof. Manjunath Prabhu. The event took place at the Govt. Higher Primary School in Gandhi Nagar, Heble, Bhatkal, and featured Prof. M. M. Jamadar, Head of the Department of English at our college, as the speaker.

The lecture garnered a strong turnout, with 52 NSS volunteers from our college, 13 staff members, and a significant number of residents from Heble village who actively participated in the session.

The event commenced at 4:30 pm with an introduction by Prof. Manjunath Prabhu, who emphasized the importance of personality development in shaping individuals for personal and professional success. He highlighted the role of NSS in fostering holistic development among students, including enhancing their interpersonal skills and self-confidence.

Prof. M. M. Jamadar then delivered an insightful lecture on various aspects of personality development. He covered topics such as communication skills, leadership qualities, emotional intelligence, and the significance of lifelong learning. Prof. Jamadar's lecture was engaging and informative, drawing from both theoretical frameworks and practical examples to illustrate key concepts.

As a special guest, Prof. S. H. Ukkund, a respected lecturer from Anjuman PU College, Bhatkal, shared his perspectives on the importance of personality development in academic and professional settings. His insights complemented Prof. Jamadar's presentation, providing diverse viewpoints on the subject.

The session concluded with an interactive Q&A session where participants engaged in discussions with Prof. Jamadar and Prof. Ukkund. They raised pertinent questions and shared their experiences and challenges related to personality enhancement.
