Report on Lecture on "Youth in Eradication of Corruption"

Date: 06-03-2019, Wednesday

Venue: Govt. Higher Primary School, Gandhi Nagar, Heble, Bhatkal

Time: 4:30 pm

A thought-provoking lecture on the topic "Youth in Eradication of Corruption" was organized by the NSS unit of our college, under the guidance of NSS Officer Prof. Manjunath Prabhu. The event was held at the Govt. Higher Primary School in Gandhi Nagar, Heble, Bhatkal, and featured Prof. Saheel Ahmed, a distinguished lecturer in Commerce known for his expertise in ethical practices and governance.

The lecture drew a significant audience, including 53 NSS volunteers from our college, 14 staff members, and a considerable number of residents from Heble village who actively participated in the discussions.

The event commenced at 4:30 pm with an introduction by Prof. Manjunath Prabhu, highlighting the critical role of youth in combatting corruption. He underscored the importance of integrity and ethical conduct in fostering a transparent and accountable society, echoing the NSS unit's commitment to social responsibility and ethical awareness.

Prof. Saheel Ahmed then took the stage and delivered an insightful lecture on the various dimensions of corruption, its impact on society, and the specific role that young individuals can play in eradicating this pervasive issue. He emphasized the need for integrity, vigilance, and civic engagement among youth to combat corruption effectively. His presentation included case studies and practical examples to illustrate the detrimental effects of corruption and the pathways to ethical governance.

As a special guest, Mr. Lakshman D. Naik, a respected member of the Gram Panchayat in Heble, shared his experiences and perspectives on grassroots efforts to tackle corruption within the local community. His practical insights resonated with the audience, highlighting the importance of collective action and civic responsibility in promoting transparency and accountability.

The lecture concluded with an engaging interactive session where participants posed questions and shared their viewpoints on strategies to combat corruption. Prof. Saheel Ahmed and Mr. Lakshman D. Naik provided additional insights and practical tips, encouraging everyone present to uphold ethical standards in their personal and professional lives.

In summary, the lecture by Prof. Saheel Ahmed on "Youth in Eradication of Corruption" was highly informative and motivating. It succeeded in raising awareness among NSS volunteers, staff members, and the community members of Heble village about the role of youth in fostering a corruption-free society. The event underscored the NSS unit's commitment to promoting ethical leadership and societal change under the guidance of Prof. Manjunath Prabhu.
