REPORT ON LECTURE ON "ROLE OF YOUTH IN INDUSTRIALISATION"

Date: 05-03-2019, Tuesday

Venue: Govt. Higher Primary School, Gandhi Nagar, Heble, Bhatkal

Time: 4:30 pm

Under the auspices of the NSS unit of our college, a stimulating lecture was organized on the topic of "Role of Youth in Industrialisation". The event took place at the Govt. Higher Primary School in Gandhi Nagar, Heble, Bhatkal, and was facilitated by our NSS Officer, Prof. Manjunath Prabhu.

The lecture was delivered by Prof. A. M. Mulla, Head of the Department of Commerce at our college. Prof. Mulla is renowned for his expertise in commerce and economics, and his insights into the role of youth in industrialisation were eagerly anticipated.

The event saw a strong turnout, with 51 NSS volunteers from our college and 11 staff members in attendance. Additionally, there was significant participation from the local community members of Heble village, demonstrating their interest in the topic.

The session commenced promptly at 4:30 pm with an introduction by Prof. Manjunath Prabhu, who emphasized the importance of industrialisation in the context of economic growth and employment generation. He underscored the role of NSS in nurturing leadership skills among students and fostering their understanding of socio-economic issues.

Prof. A. M. Mulla then took the stage and delivered an insightful lecture on the significant role that youth can play in the industrialisation process. He discussed various aspects including entrepreneurship, innovation, skill development, and the need for a conducive environment for industrial growth. Prof. Mulla's lecture was enriched with case studies and real-life examples, making it both informative and thought-provoking.

As a special guest, Mr. Subra S. Devadiga, a respected member of the Gram Panchayat in Heble, shared his perspectives on how local youth can contribute effectively to industrialisation initiatives within their community. His practical insights resonated well with the audience, highlighting the importance of grassroots involvement in economic development.

The session concluded with an interactive Q&A session where participants engaged in discussions with Prof. Mulla and Mr. Devadiga. They raised pertinent questions and shared their views on the potential challenges and opportunities for youth in the industrialisation sector.

In summary, the lecture by Prof. A. M. Mulla on the "Role of Youth in Industrialisation" was a resounding success. It provided a platform for meaningful dialogue and inspired NSS volunteers, staff members, and members of Heble village to consider their roles in fostering economic progress through industrialisation. The event underscored the commitment of our NSS unit under the guidance of Prof. Manjunath Prabhu in promoting holistic development and societal engagement among students.
