Report of Lecture on "The Role of Youth in Kannada Awareness"

Date: 03-03-2019

Venue: Govt. Higher Primary School, Gandhi Nagar, Heble, Bhatkal

Time: 4:30 pm

Under the auspices of the NSS unit of our college, a lecture on "The Role of Youth in Kannada Awareness" was organized on 3rd March 2019 at Govt. Higher Primary School, Gandhi Nagar, Heble, Bhatkal. The event aimed to emphasize the importance of Kannada language and culture among the youth, particularly in the local context.

The lecture was delivered by Prof. R. S. Nayak, Head of the Department of Kannada, who is renowned for his scholarly contributions to Kannada literature and cultural studies. His insights into the significance of Kannada in today's socio-cultural milieu were enlightening and thought-provoking.

The event was graced by the presence of Janab Ali Adam Ibbu, Vice-President of the Gram Panchayat, Heble, who shared his perspectives on the role of local governance in promoting Kannada awareness among the youth. His practical examples and anecdotes resonated well with the audience, highlighting the grassroots efforts needed to preserve and propagate the Kannada language.

The program commenced promptly at 4:30 pm with an introduction by Prof. Manjunath Prabhu, NSS Officer of our college, who articulated the objectives of the lecture and welcomed the participants. The audience comprised 54 enthusiastic NSS volunteers from our college and 9 staff members, all keenly attentive to the discussions.

Additionally, a significant number of residents from Heble village actively participated in the event, underscoring their interest and commitment to Kannada culture.

Prof. Nayak's lecture covered various facets of Kannada literature, its historical evolution, and its relevance in contemporary times. He stressed the pivotal role that today's youth play in preserving and promoting Kannada language and culture amidst globalisation and cultural amalgamation.

Janab Ali Adam Ibbu, in his address, emphasized the need for collaborative efforts between educational institutions, local governance bodies, and the community at large to foster a deeper appreciation for Kannada among the younger generation.

The lecture concluded with an interactive session where participants engaged in a lively exchange of ideas and experiences related to Kannada language learning, cultural practices, and challenges faced in its propagation.

In summary, the lecture by Prof. R. S. Nayak, organised by our college NSS unit under the guidance of NSS Officer Prof. Manjunath Prabhu, was a resounding success. It not only enriched the understanding of Kannada language and culture among the attendees but also inspired them to take proactive steps in promoting Kannada awareness in their respective spheres.

The event served as a testament to the commitment of our college NSS unit and the enthusiasm of the local community in preserving and celebrating Kannada heritage. Such initiatives are pivotal in nurturing a sense of cultural pride and identity among the youth, ensuring the continuity of Karnataka's rich linguistic and cultural heritage.
