REPORT ON PLANTING OF SAPLINGS AND SOWING SEEDS ACTIVITY

Organized by: NSS Unit of our College

Under the Guidance of: NSS Officer Prof. R. S. Nayak

Date: 05-03-2020 to 11-03-2020

Venue: Govt. Higher Primary School, Kotakhanda, Marukeri, Bhatkal

Time: 10:00 AM

Number of NSS Volunteers: 53

Number of Staff Members: 03

Introduction:

The NSS Unit of [Your College Name], under the guidance of NSS Officer Prof. R. S. Nayak, organized a week-long activity of planting saplings and sowing seeds from 05-03-2020 to 11-03-2020 at the Govt. Higher Primary School in Kotakhanda, Marukeri, Bhatkal. The primary objective of this initiative was to promote environmental sustainability and greenery while fostering a sense of environmental responsibility among the participants.

Activities Undertaken:

The planting of saplings and sowing seeds activity involved various tasks aimed at enhancing the green cover and biodiversity within the school premises. NSS volunteers actively participated in planting saplings of indigenous tree species, shrubs, and flowering plants in designated areas around the school campus. Additionally, they also sowed seeds of vegetables, herbs, and flowering plants in the school garden, promoting organic farming practices and sustainable agriculture.

Community Participation:

The activity received enthusiastic participation from the residents of Marukeri village, who joined hands with the NSS volunteers in their endeavor to green the surroundings. This collaborative effort not only enhanced the beauty of the school premises but also fostered a sense of ownership and stewardship towards the environment among the community members. The active involvement of the local populace underscored the collective commitment towards environmental conservation and sustainability.

Impact and Outcome:

The week-long activity of planting saplings and sowing seeds yielded tangible results, with a significant increase in the green cover and vegetation within the school premises. The newly planted saplings and seeds not only beautified the surroundings but also contributed to improving air quality, conserving soil, and providing habitat for local flora and fauna. Furthermore, the initiative served as a platform for raising awareness about the importance of environmental conservation and sustainable living practices among the participants.

Acknowledgment and Gratitude:

The NSS Unit extends its heartfelt gratitude to all the volunteers, staff members, and residents of Marukeri village who actively participated in the planting of saplings and sowing seeds activity. Special thanks to NSS Officer Prof. R. S. Nayak for his invaluable guidance and support throughout the initiative. The collective effort and dedication demonstrated by everyone involved exemplify the spirit of service and environmental stewardship promoted by the NSS.

Conclusion:

The activity of planting saplings and sowing seeds organized by the college NSS unit exemplifies the commitment to environmental sustainability and community engagement upheld by the organization. Through collaborative efforts and collective action, the initiative not only beautified the school premises but also fostered a sense of environmental responsibility and stewardship among participants. The NSS Unit remains committed to organizing such initiatives that contribute to the well-being of the environment and the community.
