Report on Sadbhavana Divas Celebration by NSS and NCC Units

Date: October 31, 2022

Location: Our College Campus

Overview

The joint Sadbhavana Divas Celebration, organised collaboratively by the NSS (National Service Scheme) and NCC (National Cadet Corps) units of our college, was a momentous occasion that emphasised unity, diversity, and goodwill. Held within the serene confines of our college campus, this event brought together students, faculty, and staff to commemorate the ideals of peace and harmony.

Event Highlights

Welcome Speech by Prof. R. S. Nayak

Professor Nayak, in his eloquent welcome address, set the tone for the day. He eloquently spoke about the significance of Sadbhavana Divas and urged everyone to embrace the spirit of understanding and cooperation.

President of the Function: Prof. Mushtaq Shaik

Our esteemed principal, Professor Mushtaq Shaik, presided over the celebration. He emphasised the need for fostering unity and brotherhood, transcending barriers of caste, religion, and language. His words resonated deeply with the audience.

Thought-Provoking Speakers

Two distinguished speakers graced the occasion:

1. Prof. S. A. Indika: As the IQAC Coordinator, Prof. Indika shared insights on promoting quality education and inclusivity. She emphasised the role of education in bridging gaps and fostering mutual respect.
2. Mr. Naveen, B.A. Final Year: Mr. Naveen, a final-year student, delivered the oath for unity and brotherhood. His heartfelt words echoed throughout the hall, inspiring all present.

Oath for Unity and Brotherhood

At the conclusion of the event, participants stood together, hand in hand, and solemnly pledged:

"I take this solemn oath that I will work tirelessly for the emotional oneness and harmony of all members of our college community. Regardless of our backgrounds, I shall resolve differences through dialogue and understanding, without resorting to violence."

This oath symbolised our commitment to building a stronger, more compassionate college environment.

Conclusion

The Sadbhavana Divas Celebration served as a reminder that unity transcends boundaries. Let us carry forward this spirit, fostering goodwill and empathy within our college and beyond.
