4. SADBHAVANA DIVAS (NATIONAL UNITY DAY)

Report on Sadbhavana Divas Celebration

Introduction

On August 18, 2022, our college staff, NSS volunteers, and members of Sadbhava Manch, an organization in Bhatkal, came together to celebrate Goodwill Day. The event took place at Samshuddin Circle, a vibrant gathering spot in the heart of the town. The primary objective was to foster a sense of unity in diversity among the people, transcending barriers of caste, creed, and background.

Event Details

- Date: August 18, 2022
- Venue: Samshuddin Circle, Bhatkal
- Distinguished Guests:
 - JD Naik, Former MLA
 - Gangadhar Naik, President of KASAP (Karnataka Association for Social and Public Affairs)

Program Highlights

The Goodwill Day celebration was a testament to the power of collective goodwill and understanding. Here are the key highlights:

1. Inauguration and Welcome:
 - The event commenced with a warm welcome to all attendees.
 - Dignitaries, including JD Naik and Gangadhar Naik, graced the occasion.
 - Their presence symbolized the shared commitment to unity and harmony.
2. Unity in Diversity:
 - Speakers emphasized the richness of our diverse culture and heritage.
 - Participants engaged in discussions, sharing personal stories that bridged gaps and celebrated differences.
 - The message was clear: together, we are stronger.
3. Interactive Sessions:

- Open forums allowed people to express their views on unity, tolerance, and acceptance.
 - Participants explored ways to promote goodwill in their daily lives.
 - The event served as a reminder that understanding and empathy can break down barriers.
4. Pledge for Goodwill:
- The celebration concluded with a collective pledge:
 - To treat every individual with respect and kindness.
 - To appreciate diversity as a strength.
 - To actively contribute to a harmonious society.

Conclusion

The Goodwill Day celebration at Samshuddin Circle was a resounding success. It reinforced the idea that goodwill knows no boundaries—it transcends age, profession, and affiliations. As we move forward, let us continue to build bridges, celebrate diversity, and create a more compassionate world.
