Report on the Session: “The Role of IPR in E-Commerce”

Date: 14th November 2022

Venue: Hall No. 03

Resource Person: Mr. Phaniyappayya Hebbar, Lecturer, Shree Guru Sudhindra Degree College (MoU Partner)

Number of Students Participated: 21

Introduction

On 14th November 2022, our college organized an insightful session for M.Com students focusing on “The Role of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) in E-Commerce.” The session was held in Hall No. 03 and was conducted by Mr. Phaniyappayya Hebbar, a distinguished lecturer from Shree Guru Sudhindra Degree College, our esteemed MoU partner.

Objective

The primary objective of this session was to enhance students' understanding of how intellectual property rights influence and shape the e-commerce industry. Given the rapid growth of online businesses, understanding IPR is crucial for students who aim to engage with or manage e-commerce ventures.

Key Highlights

1. Introduction to IPR: Mr. Hebbar commenced the session with a comprehensive overview of intellectual property rights, explaining various forms of IPR including copyrights, trademarks, patents, and trade secrets. He emphasized the importance of these rights in protecting innovative and creative works.
2. IPR in E-Commerce: The resource person elaborated on how IPR plays a significant role in e-commerce. Key points discussed included:
 - Brand Protection: The role of trademarks in safeguarding brand identity and preventing counterfeit products.
 - Content Protection: How copyrights protect digital content, including text, images, and videos, from unauthorized use.
 - Innovation Protection: The impact of patents on protecting technological innovations and ensuring that creators receive credit and financial benefits from their inventions.
3. Case Studies and Practical Insights: Mr. Hebbar presented various case studies demonstrating real-world applications and challenges related to IPR in the e-commerce sector. These examples highlighted issues such as copyright infringement, trademark disputes, and the enforcement of IPR across different jurisdictions.

4. Legal Framework and Compliance: The session covered the legal frameworks governing IPR in e-commerce, including international treaties and local regulations. Mr. Hebbar stressed the importance of compliance with IPR laws to avoid legal conflicts and ensure ethical business practices.
5. Interactive Discussion: An engaging Q&A session followed the presentation, allowing students to clarify doubts and discuss specific scenarios related to IPR in e-commerce. Mr. Hebbar provided valuable insights and practical advice based on his expertise.

Conclusion

The session provided M.Com students with a deeper understanding of the integral role of intellectual property rights in e-commerce. Mr. Hebbar's expert presentation and subsequent discussion equipped students with knowledge that will be beneficial for their future careers in business and commerce.

We appreciate Mr. Hebbar for sharing his valuable insights and contributing to the academic growth of our students. The event was well-received, and the participation of 21 students underscored the relevance and interest in this critical area of study.
